DECLARED INSANE, BUT THE GALLOW WAITS FOR HIM

Deadlock in Case of Arizona Prisoner as Hour for His Execution Approaches.

PHOENIX, Ariz., Nov. 25.—William Faltin, condemned to be hanged today, was declared insane by two physicians at Florence Prison this forenoon, but Wiley Jones, Attorney General, and fellow members of the State Board of Pardons and Paroles went to the prison to see that the execution was not halted except by a court order or the consent of the Pardon Board.

R. D. Sims, Warden of the State Penitentiary, declared Faltin would not be placed on the gallows trap until the last minute.

The prisoner was declared insane by the prison physician, Dr. C. W.
Randall, and Dr. E. O. Plath, a medical expert taken to Florence to-day by an attorney for Faltin.
If the declaration that the prisoner is insane fails to be acted upon, the anti-capital punishment forces, who under Gov. George W. P. Hunt's leadership have heretofore prevented the infliction of the death penalty by the State, have one other recourse.
This involves the resignation of Sims as Prison Warden. The law requires the Warden to conduct all executions.
If there is no Warden there can be no legal execution, according to lawyers.

AUTO INSURANCE SWINDLE.

Man Pleads Guilty of Misrepresentation to Insurance Company.
Wesley L. Beckhorn, a lightning rod salesman, of No. 449 East Water Street, Elmira, pleaded guilty to-day before Judge Williams in the Court of General Sessions to an attempt to swindle the Automobile Insurance Company of No.
109 William Street of $3,445. Beckhorn was remanded to the Tombs until Dec. 2 for sentence.
In December last Beckhorn bought a second-hand automobile for $500. Allegedly it was a brand new machine. He insured it for $3,445. It was destroyed by fire March 30 last near Pow's Station, Pa., and Beckhorn claimed the insurance.
Investigation shows the machine was old and Beckhorn's indictment followed.

SUES FOR HIS WIFE'S LOVE.

William Martin Sues Emil Martin, No Relative, Stole Affections.
Emil Martin, a well known real estate owner of No. 1043 Wyckoff Street, Brooklyn, was to-day sued in the Supreme Court by William Martin of No.
1232 Halsey Street for $25,000 damages.
Shortly after the marriage of William Martin in October, 1912, the complaint alleges, Emil Martin, who is not related to the plaintiff, conspired to win the affections of Mrs. Martin and succeeded to such an extent that the wife no longer loves her husband. The husband, however, still professes his love for his wife.

CORRESPONDENCE SCHOOL SONG.

(From the Sterling (Kan.) Bulletin.)
This is the correspondence school yell:
"Poo-hoo, Harvard!
Poo-hoo, Yale!
All we know We learned by mail."
For a class song we would suggest:
Waiting for the postman—hear his welcome tramp
He will bring us cent stamps.
Aren't we the lucky guys? In ten easy lessons We get all of Wisdom's very choicest blissful.

HAD A BOMB BURST ON TOP OF HIS HEAD

Canadian Soldier Arrives Who Left Most of His Scalp in Northern France.

The steamship Baltic of the White Star Line, in to-day from Liverpool, brought the smallest steered list in her history. There were but 174 passengers on the vessel. The reason for the small list was the refusal of the line to bring young men of military age. Altogether between 300 and 400 were refused.

The talk of the ship was Robert A.

Kendall of Vancouver, B. C., a twenty-year-old soldier, who holds the unique honor of having had a bomb explode on his head and live.
Young Mr. Kendall was wearing a tightly fitting skull cap to-day in lieu of the greater part of his scalp. He was in the thick of things in Northern France.

"We got so used to exploding bombs," he said, "that we hardly paid much attention to them. One day a big league pitcher in the German ditches tossed one on top of my head.
It exploded. I came to my senses about a week later in a base hospital.
I still feel as though Niagara Falls was roaring in my brain."

POLICEMAN A SUICIDE; SAYS "WIFE TOO GOOD"

Officer Uses Service Revolver to End His Life—Leaves Note to Father.

William Powell, a patrolman, who had been attached to the West One Hundredth Street Police Station, committed suicide by shooting in his home at No. 170 West One Hundred and Ninth Street, to-day. Relatives were unable to tell the reason for his act, but his wife has not been in good health of late and he was worried.
This morning Mrs. Mary Powell left the house to visit a physician.

She took her three-year-old son along. Powell was left alone. When she returned she found the body of her husband on the floor. At his side was his department revolver. He had shot himself through the right temple.

On a table was a note to his father, William Powell. It read:
"Goodbye! Please have me buried by my mother. Papa, always see to Mary and the baby. Mary is a good girl—too good for a bum like me."
"BILL."

Mary the elder Mr. Powell explained, is his son's widow.
STRENGTHENING THE HEART.

"Faint heart never won fair lady." That's where the trained nurse has an advantage. She can get the doctor to prescribe something.

CHARGE 3 WITH HOMICIDE.

Allege Trifling Japanese Sailor to Death.

Three witnesses in the case of Kosa-biu Sawai, a sailor on the Japanese steamship Kanagawa who was found dead Nov. 7 in front of No. 30 Harrison Street, Brooklyn, were arraigned on a charge of homicide to-day when they appeared to testify in Coroner Wagner's office in Brooklyn. It is alleged they beat the sailor to death.
The prisoners, who were held without bail for the Grand Jury by Coroner Wagner, are Joseph Devine, thirty-five years old of No. 102 Warren Street; Cornelius J. Cleary Jr., twenty-eight of No. 75 Warren Street, and Miles Hawkins, twenty-seven of No. 141 Huntington Street.

FOR A BAD COUGH

Here is a fine old-fashioned recipe for cough, cold or related trouble that has been used for many years with great success. One teaspoonful of each of the following (Ginseng, Licorice, and to it 1/2 pint of hot water and 6 c. of granulated sugar. Take one tablespoonful 4 times a day.
No more hacking your throat hoarse and clearing up so as you can breathe freely. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Any one who has a stubborn cough or hard cold or catarrh in any form should give this prescription a trial.—Advt.
